Live an extraordinary international artistic experience

Your college experience shouldn't be restricted to your campus! Madrid is the perfect destination for students who want to study Art abroad in Europe, where they will be part of a vibrant artistic scene.

Our art studios on campus will serve as your classroom, providing a unique opportunity to learn and grow. Don't miss the chance to grow as an artist in Europe's best destination!

Nebrija's Methodology: learning by doing

Hands-on projects, studio practice, professional networking and fascinating cultural excursions.

Nebrija Arts and Humanities programs are designed to enhance students' creativity and critical thinking skills. Our aim is to help them become the artists and art professionals of tomorrow.

Madrid:

A vibrant growing artistic creative cluster

Madrid is a vibrant and fascinating destination for artists, art students and art lovers. They will find inspiration in its Contemporary Art Gallery Scene, Art and Design Studios and Artistic districts such as Carabanchel and the Barrio de las Letras.

They will discover the work of El Greco, Velázquez, Goya, Picasso, Dalí, or Miró, among other great artists, at the Prado, Thyssen-Bornemisza and Reina Sofía Museums.

The privileged location of Madrid will also enable students to travel back in time to Medieval Spain, delving into the magical historical towns of Toledo and Segovia.

Build your portfolio

Whether you are a professional or a high school student, our programs will help you boost your skills and enrich your portfolio.

High School students will gain firsthand experience of the world that will prepare them for College, besides building with us their admission portfolio.

University Programs

Your future starts here

About the program

Studying art abroad in Madrid will be an unforgettable part of your university degree and life experience.

Students, through the artistic itinerary, will develop their technical skills and inspiration by looking to the past at the Prado Museum; learn to apply current social concerns to their work through collaborative practices; and gain meaningful experience for their future careers through an immersion in the art market.

Courses description

The Contemporary Art Market

This course provides students with a comprehensive insight on the contemporary art market, which will complement and professionalize their artistic education.

Through a hands-on and on-site study of Madrid's Contemporary Art scene, students will learn how the contemporary art market is structured, and operates in a global scale.

Students will analyze how Contemporary Art is produced, validated, distributed, valued and consumed. Through visits to Art Galleries and Art Studios, Students will be exposed to the latest contemporary creation and the recent evolution of digital tendencies.

Collaborative Innovation in Socially Engaged Art

In this course, students will learn and apply Design Thinking methods to develop socially engaged art concepts, ideas and projects.

Through this hands-on contemporary art class, students will learn a structured approach to idea generation, exploration and development, to create socially engaged art. A type of art that is collaborative, addresses political issues, engages directly with audience, and is often created outside institutional structures of the art market.

Students from different fields will experience group creativity and team-based design by using techniques from across the disciplines of business, theatre, design and art practice.

Studio Drawing Practice: Remixing the Prado Museum

The rigorous path to artistic excellence must assimilate and build upon knowledge of the achievements already attained throughout Art History.

In this Course Students will combine direct observation of the great Masters of the Prado Museum, with the acquisition of Historical drawing methods and techniques.

Students will outdo their current drawing skill level as well as gaining an insight into the work of Artists such as El Greco, Ribera, Titian, Velázquez, Rubens and Goya.
